

New Consultant in Stuttgart

Markus Bodenhöfer joined the TRANSEARCH office in Stuttgart. Born in 1958 he studied business administration and spent many years in management positions in organization, sales/marketing and personnel management. At last Markus worked for an international operating company in the personnel department.

Markus has deep experiences in start-up of business / subsidiary units and business-management of medium-sized companies. In 1992 he built up and managed a consulting company for outplacement and recruitment, as well as giving lectures on personnel management and executive development. Moreover he did coaching at several universities for applies science and institutions.

In 1999 he built up and managed the offices of an international leading personnel consultancy AG with main emphasis on career consulting, coaching of executives and executive search.

Marcus has big knowledge and expertise of filling in executive positions in the sectors of energy economy, bank/insurance, services, metal- und automobile-industry and health service.