

New Consultant in Thailand

San Chau recently joined the Bangkok office as a Regional Consultant, responsible for senior level searches and is the functional Supply Chain Lead for Asia. Prior to joining the Bangkok office San was with Odgers Ray & Berndtson London. He specialises in the recruitment of Chief Procurement Officers and senior Supply Chain professionals, across a broad range of industry sectors including Financial Services, FMCG, Retail, Pharmaceutical, and Hi-tech. A chartered engineer (MIEE), his early career was spent working for GE in design engineering. San has a Master's degree in Advanced Manufacturing Systems from Brunel University, and an MBA from Durham Business School. San is British, but is fluent in Vietnamese and in his spare time enjoys football and rowing.

New Associate Director in New York Office

Meredith Herzfeld recently joined Cromwell Partners/TRANSEARCH, as an Associate Director. Meredith will be supporting two senior consultants in their coverage of senior marketing positions within the hedge fund community. She was recently working for DHR International and was previously with The Options Group's Tokyo Office.