

New Consultants in the USA

Marie Guillot, Michael Noack and Terrance C. Coyne recently joined Allen AustinSearch/TRANSEARCH as consultants.

Marie has distinct experience with clients in industries such as Oil & Gas, Petrochemical, Energy and Technology, as well as her exposure to supply chain, B2B, B2C, and e-business strategy which gives her a well-rounded foundation to assist clients with a variety of hiring challenges. She has spent much of her career working abroad, with clients on location in the UK, Netherlands, France, Spain, Germany, Belgium, Norway and Italy.

Michael has professional experience in the manufacturing arena and has an expansive and diverse network within the industry from Sales & Marketing to Operations Management and beyond. Furthermore, he has made inroads into the emerging marketplace of 'Clean Technology'. This rapidly growing field includes companies dedicated to promoting products/services related to energy efficiency, alternative fuels and environmentally responsible agendas.

Terrance has over thirty years of significant executive and senior executive line and strategic global leadership and management positions in the healthcare delivery, pharmaceutical, biotechnology, healthcare products and life sciences investment banking. Terry provides executive search consulting services for the medical device, pharmaceutical and biotechnology companies, venture capital firms that specialise in healthcare investments and non-profit and for profit healthcare delivery and healthcare services organisations.
